REV. R. KEENE RYAN TO LECTURE ON "WASHINGTON"

Rev. R. Keene Ryan, pastor of the Garfield Boulevard Presbyterian Church, and past grand chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Illinois, will deliver a lecture Sunday evening, Feb. 20th, on "Washington the Father of American Free Masonry" in Boulevard hall, 55th and Halsted Sts., at 8 o'clock. The service will be attended by members of the Masonic fraternity from all over the city.

The service is open to the public and all who desire are welcome to attend. Mrs. Tom L. Smith will sing.

HERE'S REAL SERVICE

Mr. Herring, photographer, 7818 S. Halsted St., will take your photograph, and enter you into the $20,200 beauty contest of the Chicago Tribune without charge. Come on, you Auburn Park beauties, help us put this live section into prominence. Phone Mr. Herring at once for an appointment.

A FRIEND OF MANKIND

Chiropractic is a friend of mankind. It does humanity good. It is sensible in its application and effect on the human system. It harms no one. It relieves suffering so often and so definitely that it is reasonable to generalize it and say that it will relieve every form of so-called disease. Consultation and Spinal Analysis free. Dr. Bobinsky, Chiropractor, 7831 S. Halsted St.

If you believe schools are not up to date, read this: The Oglesby school, 77th and Green Sts., a grammar school, is printing a school paper called "The Oglesby Star." It consists of eight pages of good reading for the pupils. All the work is done by the children. They print their paper in the printing room and have their own editors. We must congratulate Mr. Love, the teacher, for bringing his students to such perfection.

On Friday, Feb. 11th, Mes-ka gave its first annual subscription dance at Auburn Park Masonic Temple. Dorothea Ellsworth, Edith Monroe and Maude Willett were the committee in charge. Florence Larson is the president.

Mrs. J. W. Griffin and daughter, Iris, will arrive home this week from Glasgow, Scotland, after visiting her folks for the past eight months. She will be gladly welcomed home by her husband at 8406 Morgan St.

THE COST OF DELIVERY

One element of the cost of living, is the expense of delivering parcels. The National Retail Dry Goods Association recently conducted an investigation to find out how much this expense is. They figure that the cost is anywhere from 5 to 30 cents per package, and the average expense seems to be about 12 cents.

Many people have carelessly gotten into the habit of having goods delivered that they could just as well carry themselves. Many thousands of men and as many automobiles and teams are employed in delivering this stuff. And the people who carry their own parcels have to pay for those who indolently have their small stuff delivered. Cash and carry is a great motto for reducing cost of living.

St. Leo's dance on last Monday was a wonderful success. Through a mistake in advertising, the crowd that gathered on Tuesday was almost as large as Monday's crowd, and there were a good many disappointed people in the crowd.

Mrs. Della Phelan of 8001 S. Peoria St. passed away on Tuesday of last week. She was buried on Thursday and the requiem mass was sung at St. Leo's at 9 o'clock. She is survived by her husband, two daughters and one son.

Mr. Nicholas Alberts of 8443 S. Green St. died suddenly on last Tuesday. He was buried from St. Kilian's church on Friday, with interment at St. Mary's cemetery. He is survived by a widow, seven sons and five daughters.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheuer of 85th and Carpenter Sts., who has been ill with bronchial pneumonia, is very much improved.

Next Monday evening is social night for the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Kilian's church.

GOOD NEWS

Our many customers and friends will be glad to know that we can now supply them with that good Pocahontas mine run coal, which is pure, very high in heat units, low in ash and very coarse. The same good coal as before the war. Our Harrisburg and Franklin County coals are known all over the city for their superiority in quality of their respective districts. Our D. & H. Scranton hard coal is the very best money can buy. We also carry other grades of coal too numerous to mention. Our 27 years in the coal business is the guarantee of quality and service. We are as near to you as your telephone. Call us up. Phone Stewart 70. J. B. Meiner & Son. General offices 338 West 71st St.

The Y. M. C. A. male quartet will sing at the Seventh Presbyterian church, 86th Place and Sangamon St., next Sunday evening, Feb. 20th, at 7:45 o'clock. Don't miss this inspiring service. All are welcome.

The report that a young lady had been kidnapped at 84th and Vincennes on last Tuesday evening is thought by the Gresham police to be groundless. They explain the queer actions of the automobilists by saying that they were joy-riders returning from a trip to south side cabarets.

HOLDUP MEN OVERLOOK $1,800 SEWED IN SHIRT

Chris Wittenberg, 9035 Commercial Ave., South Chicago, brother of Justice of the Peace Charles Wittenberg of Burnham, was held up last night. He had $1,800 sewed inside his shirt and 11 cents in his pocket, when two negroes stopped him. They found only the 11 cents.

Four youths with guns held up the saloon of Stanley Luczak, 8459 Buffalo Ave., South Chicago, and procured $2,200 in checks that had been cashed by Illinois Steel Company workers, and $45 in cash.

THE AUBURN PARK FEDERATED CHURCH

77th and Normal Ave.

The Auburn Park Federated church is having a series of religious educational meetings this week under the leadership of Dr. A. H. Gage. Dr. Gage is on the committee of Sunday School evangelism of the Chicago Church Federation, and is a specialist in the field of religious education. There will be meetings Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons at 4 o'clock for boys and girls of grammar school age, and at 8 o'clock on the same days a general meeting will be held. The life of Christ will be given in pictures at the evening meetings.

Dr. Gage will speak at the evening service, 7:45 p. m., next Sunday.

Lectures on the Bible

Last Sunday the pastor of the Auburn Park Federated church gave the first of a series of lectures on "The Origin and Content of the Four Gospels." The Sunday morning lecture being the first of this series, the pastor took time to show that the gospels were written in terms understood by the men of limited knowledge of the first century. Their cosmos, their philosophy, their lack of knowledge of the sciences had to be taken into consideration. Only terms of that age were used. The Apostolic church was not a book church, the first gospel was written over thirty years after the death of Christ.

The lecturer then took up the book of Mark, showing who John Mark was and what had been his connection with the church before writing. Mark was in Rome when he wrote his gospel and wrote it for western christendom. He showed that the book was a book of action rather than of discourse. "One mighty act succeeds another in it with breathless haste, so that there is scarcely room for pause."

The next lecture of this series will be given next Sunday morning, Feb. 20th, at 10:45, on the gospel of Matthew.

CARE OF TEETH

By Dr. H. N. Novy

All questions relative to the care of teeth, mouth hygiene, etc., if of general interest, will be answered in this column. When space will not permit, letters will be personally answered.

In the previous articles the writer tried to drive home the message of the mother's duty to the child in regard to the care of the teeth. If those articles possessed the punch and appeal that they were intended to have, then the mothers will not only know what we want them to know, but will do what we want them to do. It is taken for granted that the parent knows what will inevitably occur if the child's teeth are neglected. Such being true, one finds it hard to explain that which makes them forget about the care of the teeth, in spite of the fact that they know they are doing the child a great injustice.

Today's article will be devoted to the use of the tooth brush and silk floss. A very simple subject to discuss, but still very important because so few people know how to get the best results from them.

Bear in mind, however, that if some of the teeth are decayed, then most of the effort at cleanliness is wasted; so be sure to have these faults corrected by visiting your family dentist regularly every few months.

Use a good quality stiff brush and a good dental cream or paste having a pleasant flavor to encourage regular use. One of the most effective ways to brush one's teeth is to "brush the upper teeth down, and the lower teeth up," starting at the gum line. If this procedure is carefully followed, then all danger of forcing food under the gum tissue will be eliminated. Brush the teeth at least twice a day—before breakfast and before retiring. Children's teeth should be brushed at least that frequently if not more often. Children who are not old enough to use a tooth brush themselves should have their teeth brushed by the mother. There are several good chidlren's tooth brushes on the market, and if the mother will brush the child's teeth regularly, it will soon become a habit from which the child in later years cannot be weaned.

When brushing the teeth do not forget to brush the gums, cheeks, and tongue, then rinse the mouth thoroughly.

Silk floss must be used with extreme care, as the danger to the gum tissue far outweighs the advantage gained in the removing of food particles. Your family dentist can instruct you as to the use of the floss silk.

Avoid the use of toothpicks, or the use of straw or hay as toothpicks, as they may greatly damage the gums.

Your toothbrush must be kept as clean as possible. Keep it submerged in some antiseptic solution when not in use.

Remember that the principal benefits derived from brushing one's teeth are:

1. The removal of all food particles.

2. The frequent disturbance of germs lodged about the teeth. The brush dislodges these bacteria and prevents them from destroying the teeth, so use it when young and often.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McGann of 7832 Emerald Ave. are the proud parents of a baby girl, Helen Marie, born Feb. 7th in the South Shore hospital. Mother and babe doing nicely.

Mrs. Ernest G. Weafer entertained Mrs. McNamara of Evanston and Mrs. L. A. Valentine of Rogers Park for the week end.

Little Dorothy Smith of 456 W. 79th St. entertained a few of her friends at a party in her home, given in honor of her seventh birthday. A pleasant evening was spent by all.

Mrs. Catherine Lawrence, 7926 Lowe Ave., is slowly recovering from a sprained ankle.

The Hutchinson family are now out of quarantine for chicken-pox.

A bold daylight robbery took place on Saturday morning when the Gresham Atlantic & Pacific Tea Store was robbed. The robbers entered the store between 9:30 and 10 o'clock, took $90 from the clerk, and sped away in a machine.

The Bennik family, formerly of 89th and Lowe Ave., are already installed in their new home at 8510 Aberdeen St.

A card party for the benefit of the Protestant Children's Aid will be given Friday, Feb. 18th, 8 p. m., in the Crystal ball room, Great Northern hotel. Bridge, five hundred, euchre. Prize for each table. Bring your friends. We need your help.

Miss Gertrude Hanley of 8513 Sangamon St. is quarantined with diphtheria.

LIFE

Life is a gift to be used every day,
Not to be smothered and hidden away;
It isn't a thing to be stored in the chest
Where you gather your keepsakes and treasure your best.
It isn't a joy to be sipped now and then
And promptly put back in a dark place again.

Life is a gift that the humblest may boast of
And one that the humblest may well make the most of.
Get out and live it each hour of the day,
Wear it and use it as much as you may;
Don't keep it in niches and corners and grooves;
You'll find that in service its beauty improves.

It Didn't Occur After All

Long months ago the calamity howler was shouting from the housetops, "Wait until after the holidays and everything will close up." We have had over a month after the holidays, January the hardest business month in the entire year when business settlements are almost compulsory and stocks are taken and the balance cast up, and still the amount of "closings" has been remarkably small. In fact, much less than a year ago, and locally there has been very few failures and collections have been remarkably good. True the surplus and unnecessary employes have been let out, but many of them have either been restored to their old positions, or have found better ones. There naturally must be an adjustment, and a general reduction in the riot of high living we had for the several years of forced production, and the people themselves must make this change and come back to earth and live as normally as before the hiatus. No one should expect to have everything and everybody else submit to a reduction, and try to maintain the high income for themselves. It must affect us all, and the sooner we realize this and adjust our lives to the normality, the sooner we will enjoy that evenness of living so conducive to prosperity and happiness. Englewood has no room for the calamity howler, we are a fortunate, prosperous and happy locality and we should strike hands, one and all, to keep it so. Boost for Englewood and all that makes for its betterment in every field.

There are many more causes of war than there were in 1914, but not so many people want to fight.

The man who wakes up Monday morning with a raging headache doesn't feel much like work, but anyway he's on his way back to normalcy.

Some young men's idea of the first step toward business success is to equip themselves with a dress suit and plug hat.

Tim Said—

"Give them quality goods at a fair price."

And, judging by an ever increasing volume of business, we are convinced that our established policy of Value, Courtesy and Service is the right one.

Engaging in the retail meat business in this community was not the result of sudden whim. Rather it was only after a long period of observation.

This investigation created the knowledge that there was a field—a good one—for a market man who would place "volume of business" before margin of profit. Also, that "catch penny ads" are an affront to your intelligence. Hence, our prices, plainly marked—easy to figure.

You've probably found out that we sell what we advertise at the advertised price. Your experience heretofore may have made you skeptical. If you have been in this store and made a purchase you know we "make good." We will continue to do so.

Frankly, since we handle only the very best and sell it reasonably, may we not hope for the pleasure of serving you?
We know we give you better value.

Torch of One's Own.

As Plutarch tells us: "It is well to go for a light to another man's fire, but not to tarry by it, instead of lighting a torch of one's own." A torch of one's own! That is a possession worth having, whether it be a flaming beacon on the hilltop or a tiny taper in the window. We cannot tell how far a little candle throws its beams, nor who is laying his course by its flickering light. The most that we can do—and it is also the least that we should do—is to tend the flame carefully and to keep it steady.—Brander Matthews.

Poor Papa!

"Father, you took a science degree at college, didn't you?" "Yes, my boy; I spent two years on science." "When you look in a mirror the left side of your face appears to be the right side and the right side seems to be the left. The looking-glass reverses it, doesn't it?" "Yes, my lad." "Then, why, papa, doesn't it reverse the top and bottom of your face in the same way?"

Fair Play Imperative.

"Business is business" is a motto all workers should keep before them. They should demand their rights; but should remember that those in authority have rights also, and are entitled to fair, honest treatment from the people they employ. Therefore, one must learn to be punctual, non-talkative and kindly to their associates. The employee who swerves from this code is not playing fair with employer and certainly should keep silent on the question of equal rights.—Exchange.

Ticket Not Filled Out.

There was a new baby in the corner house, and the proud parents had sent out announcement cards to friends and neighbors. Mary, who lived in the same block, was anxious to see the new baby, and was waiting impatiently for the time to come when she could go. One afternoon at another neighbor's house she saw that she, too, had an announcement of the baby's arrival. "Oh, did you get a ticket to see the baby?" she said. "We did; but it didn't say what day to come."

BURIED UNDER MINE TAILINGS

City of Douthat, in Oklahoma, Overwhelmed When Spout Deluged It With Crushed Flint.

In the zinc mining district of Oklahoma, practically unknown even by the residents of the state in which it lies, is the buried city of Douthat. Surrounding it is one of the richest mining camps in the world. The Montreal, probably one of the most famous zinc mines, is in the city, as are also the properties of several of the leading zinc mining companies of the United States.

The city was not buried by a sudden flow of molten lava, as were the cities of Pompeii, but by the "tailings" of the mines of the camp, because, it is said, of differences between owners of the mines, and merchants and landowners of the town. One day the tailing spouts of one of the great mines was turned on the town, deluging it with crushed flint. The people moved their homes and business places in a mad rush to escape the downpour of dust and rock particles. Stores, cottages, barns and tents had to be moved, and now where once stood the thriving city is an immense pile of "chat" containing thousands of carloads. One street and a few dozen homes only were spared, and here the thriving business of the little town is carried on, the once prosperous business district being now buried under an immense mountain of crushed rock.

Birds That Burrow.

Persons are not accustomed to think of birds as burrowing animals, but the puffin answers to that description. It is a chunky little fowl, less than a foot high, with a large and powerful beak. For a home it scratches a hole in the ground sometimes as much as four feet deep. To capture a puffin one must go digging. It is rather a job; and, inasmuch as the bird bites and claws fiercely, one is likely to suffer in the process. Thus the creature has maintained its numbers on many a lonely rockery, where other species of wild fowl have been killed off and exterminated.

Never the Same Again.

Friendship is a vase which, when it is flawed by heat or violence, or accident, may as well be broken at once; it can never be trusted after. The more graceful and ornamental it was, the more clearly do we discern the hopelessness of restoring it to its former state. Coarse stones, if they be fractured, may be cemented again; precious ones, never.—Walter S. Landon.

Wedding Ring Is Changed.

The wedding ring was not always plain, as we see it today. It was frequently highly ornamented and wrought with various designs. But as other things began to be worn the wedding ring was made conspicuously plain. The practice, however, was long in vogue of inscribing appropriate mottoes on rings. The ring may be said to be symbolic. It is of gold and typifies purity and refinement, whereas its roundity signifies "the round flowing of mutual love and hearty affection."
